Total number of Hours: 30 hrs

Concept of the Course:

The United Nations since its establishment in the year 1945, following the two catastrophic wars – the World War I and World War II – has travelled a long way to make the world a better place. In its efforts, it has sought to incorporate several strategies to deal with certain serious issues, such as hunger, poverty, crime against women, human trafficking, narcotics, international security and others that have from time and again tried to disrupt the stability of the world system in many ways. In this context, one of the most significant strategies that has been adopted by the United Nations, under the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), is the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), also known as the Global Goals.

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), also known as the Global Goals, were adopted by the United Nations in 2015 as a universal call to action to end poverty, protect the planet, and ensure that by 2030 all people enjoy peace and prosperity.

The 17 SDGs are integrated—they recognize that action in one area will affect outcomes in others, and that development must balance social, economic and environmental sustainability. Countries have committed to prioritize progress for those who're furthest behind. The SDGs are designed to end poverty, hunger, AIDS, and discrimination against women and girls. The creativity, knowhow, technology and financial resources from all of society is necessary to achieve the SDGs in every context.

The course will enable students to get a clear concept of how every state is concerned about removing the major hindrances toward achieving the goal of human prosperity and human well-being. In this significant effort, the students will get to know that how under the aegis of the United Nations, the states have undertaken SDGs presently as one of the important steps toward removing global poverty, hunger, pollution, etc.

Objectives:

1. The course will help students to get a thorough knowledge about the SDGs aimed toward achieving overall human well-being;
2. It will help the students to learn about the other facets of the United Nations with regard to human development;
3. Students will be able to grasp the details of UNDP;
